ORDER

15 At issue is Plaintiffs' Renewed Motion for Alternative Service of Subpoena
16 (Doc. 127, Mot.). Plaintiffs request permission to serve two subpoenas—one to produce 17 documents and the other to appear for a deposition—upon non-party Jonathan Greenblatt 18 by electronic mail. (Mot. at 1.) For the reasons below, the Court will grant the Motion.

19 According to Plaintiffs, Mr. Greenblatt is currently the CEO of the Anti-Defamation 20 League ("ADL"). (Mot. at 3.) Plaintiffs already attempted to serve Mr. Greenblatt at his 21 place of work, but an ADL employee stated that personal service of Mr. Greenblatt was 22 "never going to happen." (Doc. 124-2 at 2.) Plaintiffs now request to serve their subpoenas
23 electronically to Mr. Greenblatt's work email address that he used in or around April 2024
24 to communicate with Defendant Dr. Crow. (Doc. 127-3.) Plaintiffs reason that "Greenblatt 25 has proven that he personally uses the address in question (i.e. that it is not simply a 26 business email managed by an employee) by sending the very messages which render his 27 testimony relevant in this case." (Mot. at 6.)

28 . . .

1 Based on Mr. Greenblatt's historic use of his ADL email address, the Court can 2 reasonably infer that Mr. Greenblatt continues to utilize it because of his current position
3 at ADL. The Court finds service by e-mail is reasonably calculated to provide 4 Mr. Greenblatt timely and fair notice of, and an opportunity to object to, the subpoena.
5 Service by this method is also appropriate in this matter, given Plaintiffs' diligent efforts 6 to attempt personal service upon Mr. Greenblatt. Plaintiffs may effectuate service of the 7 subpoenas located at Doc. 127-1 by sending an electronic copy of those subpoenas to 8 Mr. Greenblatt's last known ADL e-mail address. Plaintiffs shall abide by all service
9 requirements set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45.

10 IT IS ORDERED granting Plaintiffs' Renewed Motion for Alternative Service of 11 Subpoena (Doc. 127).

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs may effectuate service of the 13 subpoenas located at Doc. 127-1 by sending an electronic copy of those subpoenas to 14 Mr. Greenblatt's last known ADL e-mail address. Plaintiffs shall abide by all service
15 requirements set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45.

16 Dated this 13th day of November, 2025.
